

City of Killeen

- WHEREAS Service to others is a hallmark of the American character and is central to how we as a nation overcome challenges; and
- WHEREAS Mayors across the nation are increasingly turning to volunteer service as a cost-effective strategy to meet city needs, and Killeen has benefited tremendously from thousands of dedicated volunteers; and
- WHEREAS Volunteer service addresses some of the most pressing challenges in our community and serves students, families, veterans, victims and even animals; and
- WHEREAS Volunteer service through civic, neighborhood and faith-based organizations expands economic opportunity by creating more sustainable and resilient communities; and
- WHEREAS Volunteers demonstrate commitment, dedication and patriotism by making a pledge to service that remains with them in their future endeavors; and
- WHEREAS I'm proud to join mayors across the country on the Mayors Day of Recognition for National Service recognizing the Corporation for National and Community Service and its work to improve lives and strengthen communities.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Daniel A. Corbin, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Killeen do hereby proclaim April 1, 2014 as:

National Service Recognition Day and I encourage all residents of Killeen to recognize the positive impact of volunteer service in our city, to thank those who serve and to find ways to give back to our community.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Killeen to be affixed this 31st day of March, 2014.

Daniel A. Corbin, MAYOR
